Residents who enjoy Flower Mounds various parks, trails, golf courses and other recreational opportunities now have a new place to go if they want to get some sporting goods and equipment.

Dick's Sporting Goods, a sports and fitness specialty retailer that caters to athletes and outdoor enthusiasts, recently opened up for business in Robertson's Creek, located on the FM 2499 shopping corridor in the northeastern part of town.

"They are a unique sporting goods provider who offer our residents top quality sporting good products," said Mark Wood, community affairs specialist for Flower Mound.

There are more than 250 Dick's Sporting Goods stores in 34 states. The company sells everything from sporting equipment such as treadmills, to camping tents.

The Pittsburg, Pa., based retailers opened three stores in Texas which are located in Flower Mound, Frisco and Arlington.

The Flower Mound location represents the company's first new construction project in Texas. Prior to this, Dicks Sporting Goods acquired other existing sporting goods establishments.

"Dick's Sporting Goods is a prominent name in their industry and we are thrilled to now have them located in Flower Mound," Wood said.
