F. DIRECTOR’S REPORT

Chuck Jennings, Director of Parks and Recreation had the following announcements:

- Wished everyone a Happy New Year. The Parks and Rec team is excited about all the great projects, events, and programs planned.
• Rheudasil Park Reconstruction project is set to go out to bid in early spring and it is anticipated that the project will start in June. Canyon Falls is probably one to two months behind the schedule for Rheudasil.

• A professional services agreement with SRA/PSC for the design work for the dog park additional parking and restroom project is set to go to the Town Council on February 3rd for approval.

• The design work for the pedestrian bridge from Timber Trails Park to Gaston Park is currently under way. A professional services agreement with Halff Associates was awarded at the December 16th council meeting.

• 50 Mexican feather plans were installed at the Twin Coves dock area.

• 7 bald cypress trees were planted at Twin Coves Park.

• A memorial tree was planted at Bakersfield Park and at the Hound Mound by Fannin Tree Nursery.

• A new section of concrete trail at Bakersfield Park was completed on December 6th.

• Approximately 400 Christmas trees were mulch during the annual Christmas tree recycle program.

• Plans are currently underway to irrigate the practice field at Spring Meadow Park.

• 41 red bollards were repainted in the Wellington neighborhood. Moving forward plans are to repaint all the red bollards throughout Town. The blue sign posts will be removed.

Mark Long, Recreation Superintendent, had the following announcements:

• The CAC will be hosting an Open House Saturday, January 11th.

• A CAC membership will be a great way to begin the new year.

• The MLK Observance Ceremony will take place on Monday, January 20th.

• The SIM second annual Fitness Expo will be held on January 18th.

• The Elite Chef Competition will be held on January 30th.

• For the 2019 year, Bad Dawg Tennis grossed $91,724.03 in only nine months. 2020 Spring session I for Bad Dawg Tennis will begin January 13th and will go through February 15th.

• Staff has met with companies in regards to replacing the Town’s current lightning detection units as well as new scoreboards for Bakersfield Park.

• Staff is currently taking registration for the spring season for all adult athletics.

• The traffic signal box program is accepting submissions. The deadline is the end of January.

• All cabins, RV sites, and primitive camp sites are open at Twin Coves Park.

Kari Biddix, Park Development Manager gave an update on CIP Projects:

• The current CIP projects in design and construction are Lakewood Park.

• Gerault Park playground has been replaced.
