

ULandscapeIT: Water Efficient Landscape Design

Monday, September 10
6:30—8:30 p.m.

Do you want to have the yard people envy on your street? Come and learn basic design principles, plant placement, and all about the newest hardscape trends so you can “do-it-yourself” and save big! Transform your landscape into a beautiful low maintenance, water efficient landscape. Learn tips on how to use the online ULandscapeIT tool (WaterUniversity.tamu.edu) to become your own landscape designer!

This program is presented by the Texas A&M AgriLife Research and Extension Center at Dallas and is sponsored by the Upper Trinity Regional Water District.
